

Terms and conditions villa Eliá

Booking

The person who makes the final booking is personally responsible for the fellow travellers who are being signed. With regard to minor travellers we assume that either the parents or guardians have agreed to their participation. To book a villa Eliá, possibly in combination with a complementary arrangement, you must fill in the online booking form on the corfu unlimited website. You can make a reservation by telephone, however it is obliged to confirm this by sending the online booking form. Only when you have received our booking confirmation the booking is final and we will send the invoice to you afterwards.

To change your holiday

In case you wish to make a change to your final booking, we will have to charge you an amount of € 20,=

Payment conditions

At booking stage the prepayment is 50%; the remaining 50% of the total amount of your journey must be paid six weeks before departure. In case of booking within six weeks before departure, the full amount has to be paid immediately upon booking confirmation.

Cancellation costs

When cancelling your booking up to six weeks before departure we will charge 50% from the total amount. In case you cancel your reservation within six weeks before departure, the full amount (100%) of the journey will be charged.

Transfer

The transfer from Kerkira airport to the Gouvia marina (back and forth) is not included in the rental price.

To check in and out

Check in at our villa Eliá is on the first day of your stay as from 16:00 hrs. On the last day of your holiday you are obliged to check out in the morning before 10:00 hrs. Before departure we will do a final check. We need to be strict on these times in order to clean the villa in time for the next renter.

After the handover of the villa to the renter, he is personally responsible. corfu unlimited can never be hold responsible to injuries which have occurred from actions taken during the period of rental.

Number of participants

Villa Eliá may be rented / populated by a maximum of 8 people. More people are under no circumstances allowed. When crossing the amount, the rental contract will be broken immediately by law and entrance to the villa will be rejected. No refund of the rental payment will be paid.

Personal information

In order to smoothly organise your holiday, you are obliged to inform us about your personal information. These will be handled confidentially and with care and will never be handed to a third party.

Inventory

Villa Eliá will be transferred to the renter in a clean condition and with a complete inventory. In the villa you will find a list with the complete inventory. At the end of the rental period the renter must deliver the villa without damages, broken devices and with a complete inventory.

To go home earlier

In case the renter needs to leave earlier than planned (for whatever reason), this will be seen as a cancellation of the arrangement.

General reservation

Eventual mistakes can not be claimed. All offers are completely optional.

Complaints

We do our utmost to make a success to a fantastic holiday, however, it can occur that something goes wrong unexpectedly. You are obliged to inform us immediately if something happens. This way you will give corfu unlimited the opportunity to resolve the problem accordingly. Complaints about your holiday with corfu unlimited must be sent in within 30 days after your journey.

Liability

corfu unlimited is never liable to damage, injury, loss, theft of damaging which occurred during a stay at villa Eliá. Every renter or participant to sailing journeys or courses of more than one day, is obliged to take a travel- and injury insurance. We recommend to also taking a cancellation insurance.